SAN DIEGO'S GROWING SOPHISTICATION IN RESTAURANT/NIGHTCLUB DESIGN HAS PUT THIS CITY UNDER THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT. SAN DIEGO HOME/GARDEN LIFESTYLES CELEBRATES SUCH OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT BY SHOWCASING SIX ESTABLISHMENTS: ADDISON IN DEL MAR, BLEU BOHEME IN KENSINGTON, GEORGE'S CALIFORNIA MODERN IN LA JOLLA AND BASIC, CURRANT AND THIN DOWNTOWN. ALL HAVE CAPTURED THE SPIRIT OF INNOVATION AND DEMONSTRATED THE TRIUMPH OF FINE DESIGN.

ALSO NOTED: Other hot restaurant/nightclub design that has appeared in San Diego Home/Garden Lifestyles magazine includes: THE GUILD (October, 2007, page 33); URBAN SOLACE, (February, 2008, page 166); ANTHOLOGY (December, 2007, page 32); and JADE THEATER (August, 2007, page 44)

STYLE NOTES: Named for Addison Mizner, an early 1900s Palm Beach architect known for his neo-classical style paying homage to the decorative arts of the western Mediterranean. Designed with a keen attention to craftsmanship and decorated with a stylish precision that could put it in the pantheon of San Diego next to the Hotel Del Coronado, the refurbished U.S. Grant, The Lodge at Torrey Pines and Tower 23 as hotels championing the best of their architectural genre.
